Bradley named interim chair of Obstetrics & Gynecology at KU School of Medicine–Wichita

WICHITA, KAN. – Kent Bradley, MD, FACOG, has been named the interim chair of the Obstetrics & Gynecology Department at the KU School of Medicine–Wichita.

He fills the position vacated by Douglas Horbelt, MD, when he retired in March after 37 years of service.

In addition to his interim position, the KU School of Medicine graduate is an OBGYN assistant professor and treats patients at Associates in Women’s Health, PA, in Newton. Prior, he was the Health Policy Advisor for the United States Senate Committee on Labor and Human Resources.

Dr. Bradley serves on the board of directors of Newton Medical Center, is an oral board examiner for the American Board of Obstetrics and Gynecology, and medical director of robotic surgery at Newton Medical Center.

The KU School of Medicine–Wichita educates doctors for Kansas while improving the health of Kansans through research and innovation.
