Matthew Macaluso, DO, receives board certification

WICHITA, KAN. – Matthew Macaluso, DO, KU School of Medicine–Wichita Psychiatry & Behavioral Sciences clinical instructor and associate director of residency training, recently received board certification from the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology, Inc.

Dr. Macaluso completed rigorous training and achieved the gold standard in each of the six core competencies:

- Patient care
- Medical knowledge
- Interpersonal and communication skills
- Professionalism
- Systems-based practice and practice-based learning
- Improvement to practice quality, specialized medicine in Psychiatry

For more than 35 years, the KU School of Medicine–Wichita has been fulfilling its mission of “Educating Doctors for Kansas” while improving the health of Kansans by providing hands-on, clinical education in the 3rd and 4th years of medical school. Starting in the fall of 2011, the Wichita campus will expand to a full, four-year program.
