Drs. Doug and Shelly Gruenbacher win teaching award

WICHITA, KAN. – Doug and Shelly Gruenbacher, MD, of Quinter, Kan., recently received the 2010 Doug Parks, MD, Family Medicine Volunteer Preceptor Teaching Award from the Department of Family and Community Medicine at the KU School of Medicine–Wichita.

The award identifies volunteer faculty members in family and community medicine who rise to a higher level of service in the education of future physicians.

Other Quinter doctors to win this award in the past:

• Victor Nemechek, MD
• Michael Machen, MD
• Dan Lichty, MD

The University of Kansas School of Medicine–Wichita is nationally recognized as a pioneer in community-oriented medical education. Since the first class graduated in 1975, more than 1,600 physicians have earned medical degrees. About half eventually established practices in the state, fulfilling the school’s promise of “Educating Doctors for Kansas.”
